LETTERS FROM TWO STATES

New London County OLD MYSTIC

Captain Everett Welles Died in Bostor -Surprise Party For Charles W. Tinker-Many Hollday Guests.

The death of Captain T. Everett Welles of Pensacola, Florida, occurred Thursday, Nov. 26th. He is survived by his widow, two children, Frank Welles and Miss Ruth Welles of Pensacola, and by two brothers, George G. Welles and William P. Welles of Old Mystic, and four sisters, Mrs. Roy Lewis of New London, Mrs. Lillie Babcock Welles of New Jersey, Miss Dora cock Welles of New Jersey, Miss Dora Alden Weles and Miss Minnie Welles

Surprise Party.

Charles W. Tinker was given a surprise party Saturday evening. Those present were the Misses Bertha Chesebro, Elsie Chesebro, Belle Ingram, Master Lawrence Ingram, Mrs.
Fanny Morgan, Misses Fanny Tyrell,
Angle Chesebro, Eva Hall, Nellie
Greene, Annie Wilcox, Charles B.
Tinker, Elisha Davis, Jr., William
Kennedy, Archibaid Lamber, Fred
Branagan, Harry McGovern, Theoiam Conroy, Mrs. Charles W. Tinker,
Mr. and Mrs. Anson Kenyon, Mrs.
Frank Ingram, Mr. and Mrs. Edmond
Finker, Mr. and Mrs. Elisha C, Davis, Mr. and Mrs. William Collins, Mrs. Edward Mitchell. The evening was given to games, music and rereshments were served.

Visited in Ledyard. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Spicer Willans have returned from their honeymoon trip and were guests over Thanksgiving of Mrs. Williams' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Chesebro of Ledyard.
The Baptist Ladies' Ald society met Tuesday with Mrs. William D. Beck-

The Methodist United Workers held no meeting this week.

Rev. Mr. Seeley of Mystic occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church on Sunday.

Mrs. Julia C. Brown suffered slight shock Thursday morning. Returning to Chicago.

Rev. and Mrs. Hubbard who have been staying for the past few months at Quakertown expect to return to Chicago this week. Mr. Hibbard has been holding special services in the Quarkertown chapel.

J. Alpheus Schoonover of New York, and his brother, Harold William Schoonover, a student at New York university, spent Thankssiving with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alpheus H. Schoonover. Mrs. John E. Spafford and daughter of Brooklyn, N. Y., are guests of Mrs. Spafford's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Ed-win Standam win Stapelyn.

Clark A. Barnes, a student at Storrs Agricultural college, is spending the Thanksziving recess with his parents.
Mr and Mrs. Frederick A. Barnes at

Gone to Mississippi.

Erastus Watrous has returned to his home in Mississippi after spending the past few months with his sister, Miss Phebe Watrous.

Mrs. Florence Clapp, principal of the Old Mystle Grammar school and son. Master Royal Clapp, left Wednesday William Brooks, in Hartford for Thanksgiving week.

Phebe Watrous.

Mrs. Florence Clapp, principal of the Old Mystic Grammar school and son. Master Royal Clapp, left Wednesday night for a trip to Montreal.

William H. Conroy of Providence was the guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Tinker.

Miss Mary Harris Dean has returned from a visit to relatives and friends in Brooklyn, N. Y., New York city, Bridgeport and New Haven.

Guests From Norwich.

Lyman Whiting and several friends from Norwich have been spending a few days with Mr. Whiting's cousin Herbert Whiting.

Mrs. C. Louise Harris has returned to New Haven after a visit to relatives at the Harris homestead.

John Hart has returned to Eiroy, William Harris in Groton on Thanks-william Brooks, in Hartford for Thanksgiving week.

The Misses Mathewson were entertained at dinner Thanksgiving day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert W. Crandall, New London.

Mrs. Fanny A. Molthrop left Wednesday to spend the Thanksgiving period at the home of her brother, David S. Adams, of New Haven, and attend the D. A. R. state convention in that city Monday, Nov. 30.

Mrs. Harrier F. Crandall and Mr. and Mrs. Alercher William Harrier F. Crandall and Mr. and Mrs. Alercher William Harrier F. Crandall and Mr. and Mrs. Alercher F. Alercher F. Alercher F. Alercher Wisconnin, after spending a week in

Mr. and Mrs. William Holmes have returned to their home in New York city after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. George R. Swain.

Colored Charles A. Walsh has re-turned to Brooklyn, N. Y., after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. C. Edwin Stapelyn.
At Brown Homestead.

Carleton W. Brown of Boston, a na-tive of Old Mystic, has been spending days at the Brown homestead Procketce, Everett Johnson of Mid-dletown, spert Thanksgiving with his mother, Mrs. T. Harry Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace O. Williams,
Mr. and Mrs. Heavy Beckwith of Mr. and Mrs. J. Harold S. Williams, and son, Horace S. Williams Mr. and Mrs. Frank Earl Williams and son, were guests Thursday of Mr. and Mrs.
Charles H. Briges of West Mystic.
Mr. and Mrs. William D. Harris of
New London were guests Thursday
GOSHEN

GOSHEN New London were guests Thanksgiv-ms of Mrs. Harris' father and sister. Or A. T. Chapman and Miss Gertrude

Miss Frances Eldredge who teacher at Hop River is spending the Thanks-giving recess with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry H. Eldredge. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Mitchell and oh. George Taylor Mitchell were uests Thursday of Mr. and Mrs.

Chapman

George Koch.

F. Alonzo Chapman entertained on Thankselving Miss Agnes Chapman of Norwich, Mr. and Mrs. Ellery Davis and children, Mrs. Enrico Burdick and children, of Old Mystic.

Mise Marjorie Harris, a teacher at Bouth Manchester is spending the

Keep baby's skin well by using Resinol Soap

The regular use of Resinol Sosp is usually enough to prevent these distressing rashes and chafings to which most bables are subject. This is so, first, because Resinol Soap is absolutely pure and free from harsh alkali, and second, because it contains the Resinol medication, on which so many physicians rely for the treatment

Sold by all druggists. For sample free, write to Dept, 10-P, Restaci, Beltimore, Md.

Thanksgiving recess aat her home

GALES FERRY

Walter R. Denison Sives Interesting

Walter R. Denison Rives Interesting Travel Talk—Local Auxiliary Wins Banner—Holiday Week Happenings.

Friday evening Walter R. Denison of Groton gave a talk on his travels in various countries and places, Madeira, Florence, India, Burma, China and Japan, to an appreciative audience in the vestry of the M. E. church under the auspices of the Epworth league. The following musical numbers were rendered preceding Mr. Denison's talk: Plano solo, La Morena, by C. Chaminada, Miss Jennie Gi Perkins; solo, Phyllis Has Such Charming Graces, by H. Lang Wilson, Miss Grace Chapman; piano duet, A Little Song, Mrs. John J. Lawlees and daughter, Ernestine Talbot.

Miss Katie Lynch and Miss Natalie Waterman of Lebanon were recent guests of Mrs. Margaret Sweeney. Mrs. Aftur Chapman and children of North Franklin spent the latter part of last week with her sister, Mrs. Peter Griffin of Moodus spent the boliday with his father, John Griffin.

John Kelley of Groton is spending the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Kelley.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sisk of Norwich spent Thursday with Mr, and Mrs. John McCarty and daughters, Miss Katie Lynch and Miss Natalie Waterman of Lebanon were recent guests of Mrs. Margaret Sweeney. Mrs. Actual Chapman and children of North Franklin spent the latter part of last week with her sister, Mrs. Peter Griffin of Moodus spent the boliday with his father, John Griffin.

John Kelley.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Kelley.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sisk of Norwich spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Sand Mrs. John McCarty and daughters, Miss Katie Lynch and Miss Natalie Phyllis Has Such Charming Graces, by H. Lang Wilson, Miss Grace Chapman; piano duet, A Little Song, Mrs. John J. Lawlees and daughter, Ernestine Talbot.

Thanksgiving Sermon.

Rev. Mr. Potter's theme last Sunday Every Day a Thanksgiving Day, from Psalma 34, 1st verse. It was a Thanksgiving sermon. Miss Grace Chapman sang at the offertory The Ninety and Nine, by Edward Campion.

At the Sunday school session Miss Laura A. Perkins gave her report as a delegate to the recent Sunday school convention in Meriden. She condensed her report to a five minute talk whose principal thought was communism. She read extracts from the remarks of several speakers that she had heard relative to Sunday school work. Worthy of notice was this verselet given the Sunday school by Superintendent Colver from Marion Lawrence, the Sunday echool worker, and which the school committed to

Good, better, best,

Never let it rest,
Till the good is better,
And the better best.
The Sunday evening service was led by Mrs. Henry W. Hurlbutt, the topic being A Song of Thanksgiving. There was special singing by members of Mrs, Hurlbutt's, Mrs. La Fontaine's and Miss Jennie G. Perkins' classes in Sunday school.

Took Color Test.

George E. Lanson, station agent, was in Hartford Thursday taking the color test required once in three years by the New Haven Railroad company.

Mrs. Fred Richards of Norwich was a caller on her mother, Mrs. Ellen S. Satterlee, on Saturday. Mrs. Satterlee has been rather indisposed and is with her sister, Mrs. Lydia Maynard, Auxiliary Wins Banner.

Mrs. James M. Potter on her re-turn from Providence brought to the local auxiliary of the Woman's Home Missionary society a banner awarded this society for making the greatest gain in membership for the last year of any society in the New England Southern conference. This will be presented to the society formally at the next meeting at the home of Mrs. John J. Lawless, by the president, Mrs. Pot-

Mrs. Nettie Peckham and her daugh-

William Harris in Groton on Thanksgiving day.

Miss Harriet Bishop Brown, teacher in the Hartford schools, arrived Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with her mother, Mrs. Sarah J. Perkins.

Four Generations at Norwich Dinner Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Hurlbutt and sons, R. Irving and J. Winthrop Hurlbutt, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Parker of Washington street, Norwich, on Thanksgiving day. Mrs. Parker is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hurlbutt. It was the first Thanksgiving anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Parker's daughter, Margaret Hurlbutt Parker, and the maternal Mr. and Mrs. Wellace A. Phillips of Bridgenort were Thanksgiving guests of Mrs. Amanda H. Perkins, of Gales Ferry, was the guest of honor, making four generations to observe the deline of the little maiden, Mrs. Amanda H. Perkins, of Gales Ferry, was the guest of honor, making four generations to observe the deline of the little maiden, Mrs. Amanda H. Perkins, of Gales Ferry, was the guest of honor, making four generations to observe the deline of the little maiden, Mrs. Amanda H. Perkins, of Gales Ferry, was the guest of honor, making four generations to observe the deline of the little maiden, Mrs. Amanda H. Perkins, of Gales Ferry, was the guest of honor, making four generations to observe the deline of the little maiden, Mrs. Amanda H. Perkins, of Gales Ferry, was the guest of honor, making four generations to observe the deline of the little maiden, Mrs. Amanda H. Perkins, of Gales Ferry, was the guest of honor, making four generations to observe the deline of the little maiden, Mrs. Amanda H. Perkins, of Gales Ferry, was the guest of honor, making four generations to observe the deline of the little maiden, Mrs. Amanda H. Perkins, of Gales Ferry, was the guest of honor, making four generations to observe the deline of the little maiden, Mrs. Amanda H. Perkins, of Gales Ferry, was the guest of honor, making four generations to observe the deline of the little maiden, Mrs. Amanda H. Perkins, of Gales Ferry, was the guest of honor, making four generations to observe the deline of the little maiden, Mrs. Amanda H. Perkins, and Mrs. Amanda H.

Harvest Home Concert-B. R. York Threshes Sixty Bushels of Oats Per

The programme of the Harvest Home concert given by the Sunday school Nov. 22d was as follows: Song 117, school: prayer: Psalms 100, by W. G. Thomas' class: Doxology, choir; reci-Thomas' class: Doxology, choir; recitations, Viola Browning, Dorothy Browning, Ruth Farzo and Bradford Jones: song, Harriet Geer; exercise, Mrs. B. R. York's class; song No. 12, school; recitations, Ethel Walden, Viola Green; song, Giving Thanks, Grace Mahoney, May Walden, Edith Knott; recitation, A Good Thanksgiving, Dorothy McCall; song, What Shall the Harvest Be? Miss Nellie Way; reading, Miss Alice Mahoney; remarks; closing song, No. 104, by the school.

Letters received from Pittsfield, Mass., announce that fine sleighing is being enjoyed in that place this week-Came by Automobile.

Arthur Perkins of Jersey City, N. J. George Anderson and son, Berton Andrews with Mrs. Andrews and their three children, of Williamsnic, spent the day at the home of George Chappel Monday. The party made the trip-Willett Carpenter has been spending several days with friends in Boston.

Bright Meteors. A number of very brilliant shooting stars were noted Tuesday evening.

Speedy Threehing. B. R. York has purchased a new up-to-date threshing machine and with his gasoline engine for power he has made a new record for a threshing story, 50 bushele of oats an hour. or a bushel a minute. Mr. York has a fine orchard of young apple trees. One handsome Baldwin apple he picked this year weighed 16 ounces.

A Thankstiving service was held in

A Thanksgiving service was held in the church at 11 o'clock Thursday.

PENDLETON HILL

The Hill school closed Wednesday or the Thanksgiving recess.

Misses Winifred and Cool's Palmer were at home for over Sunday.

Rev. E. P. Mathewson preached an excellent Thanksgiving sermon Sunday morning, taking his text from ins a fe weaps in Easthampton, Mass.

Ephesians 5: 20. A good sized congregation was present.

The recent rains have done much towards filling atreems and dry wells.

FITCHVILLE

Ladies' Benevolent Union Entertained by Mrs. Phoebe Robinson.

Miss Katie Lynch and Miss Natalie

William Santo and sister, Miss Flora Santo, of Baltic, were recent callers at the home of Mrs. Mary Marra, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Cantlin and daughter Rena of Providence, are visiting Mrs. Cantlin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Brown, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williams of Norwich and Mrs. Charles Williams of Norwich and Mr. and Mrs. George Eastland of New London spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eastland.

and.
Miss Rose Marra is spending a few days in Bozrahville.

Lawrence Reardon of Norwich was the recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Cornellus Kane.

The Ladies' Benevolent union met at the home of Mrs. Phoebe Robinson's at the home of Mrs. Phoebe Robinson's last Tuesday afternoon and evening and tied two quilts for the coming sale. Mrs. Robinson served a supper of clam chowder, cake, fruit and cof-fee. There were about 18 ladies pres-ent. The next meeting will be held Tuesday Dec. 1st

ent. The next meeting will be held Tuesday, Dec. 1st.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Austin and son Boyd, and Mrs. Nelson Winchester, spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Austin, of Scott Hill,
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Austin and Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Winchester spent Thanksgiving on Scott Hill.
Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Wheeler and children spent Thanksgiving in New London.

ROAD SOCIETY (Stonington.)

Miss Caroline Gallup Reed, widow of Rev. Sylvanus Reed, of New York, who died recently, was deeply interested in erecting the Gallup memorial for John and Hannah L. R. Gallup at White Hall cemetery near Mystic, Ct. Miss Grace Wheeler spent several winters with her in New York, assisting her in the completion of her biography.

Miss Grace D. Wheeler was the guest of Miss Julia E, Smith of Westerly over Sunday.

erly over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Frink entertained Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Shay of Groton, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Fletcher of Westerly, John Kane of New London and Mr. Frink's brother from Norwich, at Thanksgiving din-Mr. and Mrs. Fernando Wheeler had as guests over Thanksgiving, George Loring and family of Norwich, and Mason Hewitt and family of Hinckly Hill, Westerly.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanford N. Billings had their daughters, Misses Lucy and Priscilla Billings home over Thanks-giving day. Thursday evening Miss Ruth Rogers and Harold Wilcox of Mystic and Parker Johnson of Springfield, were entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. Seth N. Williams en-Emmeline Morgan of Old Mystic, Mrs. Fannie William, A. G. Hewitt and Miss Martha G. Williams of Mystic, G. Hewitt and Thanksgiving dinner.
Mrs. Phebe Ford had her niece and the latter's husband, Mr. and Mrs. N. Stanton Gates of Brooklyn, with her n Thanksgiving day. Mr. and Mrs. Francis Noyes and daughter Louise, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Mrs. Marie Merrill of Shunnoc Heights with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lord. Mrs. Noyes and daughter will remain over Sunday. Cornelius Menz entertained his sisters, Miss Hannah and Mrs. Henrietta Stanton on Thanksgiving day. Miss Martha G. Williams returned Tuesday from Boston, where she is studying at the Boston Conservatory of Music. She will remain here ove Sunday. Dr. L Hart Noyes of Providence ents Miss Hattle Wheeler has returned to the home of her sister, Mrs. C. S. Noyes, after several weeks' stay with relatives in New Jersey.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Dixon had their son and family from Wickford, R. I. with them over Thanksgiving.

NORTH FRANKLIN

Mrs. Elizabeth Lillie, at 93, Prepares Thanksgiving Dinner,

Mr. and Mrs Alfred Moran of Willimantic were callers on Miss Flor-ence Rockwood Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Clark entertained on Thanksgiving Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Clark of Hartford and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Clark Mrs. Andrew Weeks of Ashford, who has been visiting at F. A. Rockwood's. has gone to Atwoodville to Thanksgiving with her daughter, Mrs. Jennie Macfarland, Family Dinner Party.

William Lillie of this town spent Thanksgivying with his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Lillie aged 92 years. Mrs. Lillie also entertained her daughter, Mrs. Jane Card of Hartford, and five grandchildren Misses Amy and Alice Lillie of Willimantic, Miss Clara Card of Hartford and Fred and Walter Lillie of Lebaron. Mrs. Lillie although of such an advanced age, prepared most of the dinner herself. Miss Bella Johnson of Williman-ic was a guest one day this week f Mrs. ". H. Clark. din Johnson is spending a lartford, the guest of Mrs.

Elizabeth Hart. Mrs. Applo Sherman has returned home to Presion after a short visit with her daughter, Mrs. Eugene Clark Frank H. Clarke has returned to his home in Boston after spending several weeks with his sister, Mrs. O. L. Johnson.

Albert Haydon and sister, Miss Alice Haydon, of Greeneville, were Thanksgiving guests of rMs. Jennette Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Simpson of Scotland, Mr and Mrs. Clarence E. Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Simpson and son Robert, M r. and Mrs. C. Clinton Simpson and Walter Simpson of orwich and Leroy P. Simpson of New London.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Manning and children spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Manning of Leb-

GARDNER LAKE

Horse on School Team Breaks Leg-Dogs Worry Rathbone Sheep.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. White of Lef-fingwell spent Sunday at Sydney A. Dolbeare's. The little daughter of Mrs. Eric Mitchell in Franklin has been named

Nancy Jane.

Lewis Latimer spent two days last week in Norwich, the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Earl Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. Fitch Dolbesre spent the week end at their cottage in Spring Grove. Spring Grove,

Dr. Louis Sullivan of New London spent Monday hunting in this vicin-ity. While here he was the guest of E. J. Standish. Mr. Engle, the driver of the chool team from Gardner Lake to the Dol-bears Hill district, Montville, had his horse break its leg on his trip one day Doga have been worrying the sheep of Loren Rathbone. Family Dinner Party. Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Morgan enter-tained a family party over Thanksgiving.

Miss Ethel Champlin of Hartford spent the holiday with her mother, Mrs. Elia Champlin.

Mrs. Ella Champlin has returned from a visit with relatives in Norwich and Yantic. Mrs. Charles Winchester and Mrs. David Maynard were in Norwich on Charles Gardner, who is ill with liver

Charles Gardner, who is ill with liver trouble, is reported as improving.

The dance at Dolbeare's hall Nov.
20 was well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hanney and family were in Waterford Monday attending the funeral of Mr. Hanney's father, Samuel Hanney. Brought High Prices. The livestock at Lutskey's auction brought high prices for the time of

LISBON

Temperance Concert with Interesting Program-Mrs. T. E. Davies Give

Rev. T. E. Davies' sermon was in line with the thought of the season. Thankfulness. At the Sunday school hour, a temperance concert was given by the school, the program being as college. Organ prelude, song by the by the school, the program being as follows: Organ prelude, song by the choir, responsive reading. Twenty-third Psalm; prayer, song, Calling for Thee; recitation, Teddy Kendall; song by the choir, recitations, Clarence Fitch, Arthur Kinne, Ralph and Tyler Fitch and George Foote; song by the choir, recitation, Thanksgiving, by John Gardner; reading, Malcolm Wibber'ey; recitation, Beatrice Reade; song; recitations, Edna Kendall, Helen Kinne, Ida Kinne, Charles, Eddie and Theodore Sabelle; song, recitation, Theodore Sabelle; song, recitation John Gardner; recitation, Mildre Panovec; closing song; postlude, Report of Bozrah Meeting, At the Christian Endeavor meeting Sunday evening Mrs. T. E. Davies gave a very interesting report of the meeting of the Norwich union which she attended in Bozrah Saturday.

Paul Bradlaw of Storrs college is at home for the Thanksgiving recess.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Hyde Wei-

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Hyde, Walter Hyde and Clara Hyde spent Thanksgiving with relatives in Norwich Town,

wich Town,
Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kennedy and Miss Alice Kennedy took Thanksgiving dinner with J. Ernest Kennedy in Preston,
Miss Charlotte Cady is spending her Thanksgiving vacation at her home in Oxford, Mass.

PRESTON

Union Thanksgiving Service Held at Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Freeman of Nor-wich were Sunday callers at Ned Wheeler's. Shelton Keneston, who is attending Bates college, is spending the Thanks-giving recess at his home here. Miss Ethel Miller began teaching this week in the Kimball district. The Preston City grange held its regular meeting Tuesday evening with a good attendance. The program was arranged by Ceres Miss Ethel Miller. Mr. and Mrs. Beriah E. Burdick of Hanover spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Eurdick, Rev. Lucian Drury of North Stonington preached at the Baptist church unday. The union Thanksgiving service was held Sunday evening at the Baptist church Rev. L. M. Keneston conduct-ing the services. Mr. and Mrs. Theron Tefft and son of Greeneville, and Harvey Kennedy and family, spent Thanksglving at J.

HAMBURG

L. D. Harding sold a fine lot of turkeys to Deep River purchasers the first of the week. C. T. Whitman and Murray D. Lincoln of the New London county Farmleague spoke in Grange hall last week Thursday evening. Lodowick Bill was in Deep River nd Saybrook on business Wednesday.

Miss Esther Olon entertained the Young Ladies' Whist club last Tuesday evening.

A number from here attended the dance at Hadlyme last Thursday night. Ingalls' truck carried the par-

and Saybrook on business

FRANKLIN

Ralph Armstrong, of Brown univer-sity spent Thanksgiving with his par-ents in Franklin, Willard Capshaw of Hartford was giving with his parents. There is to be a stereopticon lecture on Turkey, Sunday evening at the Congregational church. The Women's Home Missionary so-ciety is making preparations for a sale,

LEONARD BRIDGE

Mr. Clarence G. Geer was a Norwich Mr. David Walsh spent Thankegiv-ng with his brother, William Walsh of Bridgeport. Frank Sisson is visiting his moth-Tim Clifford and Henry J. Williams are doing jury duty at Norwich.
Mr. and Mrs. Otto A. Nettleton and Miss Grace E. Nettleton, spent Sunday with W. H. Kneeland and family at Columbia.

MOHEGAN

There was a good attendance at church Sunday, both morning and eveing. Mrs. Lloyd Harris and daughter Ruth, of Norwich, were guests of Mrs.
E. C. Fowler Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith attended the Smith-Brooks wedding in Willimantic Thursday.
Charles Mathers, Mrs. Avery and Mrs. E. C. Fowler were in New London Tuesday.

Bristol, Va., has adopted the city

Donation Party at the Parsonage-R. D. Carrier Handles 6.025 Pieces During October.

Windham County

CANTERBURY GREEN

Tomorrow morning at the Green the cantata service for Thanksgiving entitled "Our Country for All," will be used, with special music.

An illustrated lecture on "The Winning of the West" is to be given at 7:35 p. m., following the Christian Endeavor meeting which is at 7 p. m.

The Junior Christian Endeavor meeting is at 3 p. m. Saturday, Leader Lydia Lathrop.

Mrs. James Dawson of North Society is visiting in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kenyon of Scotland spent Thanksgiving day with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Larkham.

Harry Cosley of New York came up for the last days of hunting with Joseph King.

Rev. Marion Hastings Jones spent Thanksgiving with her parents, in Hartford.

Donatlen Party.

Donation Party. A donation party was given the pastor at the Green last Tuesday night in true old-fashioned style—one that helped the pocketbook as well as the leader—and incited a merry company in a good time socially.

Appley Family Gathering. James Appley and family and Mr. Milo Appley of Bunage, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Walter Appley of Norwich, spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. James

Harold Carr spent Sunday at hom with his mother.

The Thursday evening prayer meeting will be held at the parsonage.

Topic: A parable of service. Matt. 26:1-16.

of the Plains Friday night by the Meth-odist church people. Busy Month for R. F. D. Carrier. The amount of mail handled by R. D. Carrier Lathrop for October from South Canterbury postoffice, includes:

Delivered. C. E. Report.

The Thanksgiving proclamation was read from the pulpit Sunday morning.

Rev. T. E. Davise' sorres were a superior of the policy Total12881 pc's 2977 lbs. 15 oz.

> Collected. First Class. 2711 pc's 55 lbs. 8 oz. Third Class. 145 pc's 20 lbs. 15 oz. Fourth Class 264 pc's 477 lbs. 7 oz. Franked 24 pc's 1 lb . 10 oz. Total3144 pc's 556 lbs. 8 oz. The total collected and delivered 16,025 pieces; 3,533 pounds. In amount of mail handled this is one of the heaviest routes in Eastern Connecti-

POMFRET CENTER

Stanton Weeks Goes to Percheron Sales-Newspaper Night at Grange Proves Most Interesting.

Stanton Wicks and E. E. Brown visted the Connecticut Agricultural Col-ege Tuesday. Mrs. John D. Smith is visiting her laughter at Westland Farm.
Miss Parmento has returned from a visit to Cambridge.

risit to Cambridge.

Ralph Brown and Mrs. Myrtie Brown of Plainfield visited at Westland Farm Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanton Wicks, and daughter, started Wednesday for a western trip. They stopped at Syracuse over Thanksgiving, and Mr. Wicks will go on to Chicago, where he will be joined by Prof. H. L. Garrigus of the college and they will altend several sales of Percheron horses.

Wolf Den Grange held its regular meeting Tuesday evening.

Feature Program at Grange.

Feature Program at Grange. The Lecturers program which proved very enjoyable was in charge of the Worthy Chaplain Alice E. Wilbur, and fornia Tuesday. She will visit relatives in Chicago and Wichita, Kan., consisted mainly of a "Newspaper—The "Grange Bulletin"—contributors and editors as follows:—Abington News, Virginia Sharpe; Pomfret Centre News, Master Herbert Slye; Mercy Hollow News, Frank Haines; Editorial, Alice E. Wilbur; Hamlet Neighborhood, Elizabeth J. Brown; Reading, Carie Haines; Original Poem, Rev. Frank Fuller; Story Column, Worthy Lecturer; Commonplace Things, Mrs. Le Forte; Temperance Column, Mary A. Fuller; Original Poem, Elizabeth J. Brown; Menu for Thanksgiving Dinner, Fanny Fuller; Miscellaneous Recipes, Roxana Slye; Advertisements and Current Events, Haines: ily of Willimantic and Lester Hamlet Ralph Eaton of Bellows Falls,

WOODSTOCK

Advertisements and Current Events,

Exhibit of Poultry and Addresses in Connection with Meeting of Agricul-Surprise Party For Miss Agneta tural Fair Association.

Miss Nellie D. Chandler and Mrs. farcus Wood close their home Marcus Wood close their home here this week. They are to spend the win-ter in Brooklyn, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs George G. Spalding have returned from their wedding trip to Washington, D. C. Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Huie and E. G. Williamson of Springfield were guests Thanksgiving.
of William M. Gallup over Thanksgiv- Miss Ruth

Miss Ruth Howard of Lebanon is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kimball. Charles H. Libby of Boston was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Dor-rance over the week end. To Have Exhibit of Poultry. The meeting of the Woodstock Agricultural society is to be held at the secretary's office, Dec. 9th. In the dining room there is to be an exhibition of poultry to which all interested have been invited to bring birds. At noon a lunch will be served by the ladies of the grange and members of ladies of the grange and members of the society. At the afternonn session at 1.30 an address will be given by Hon. H. T. Hyde, president of the Worcester Southwest Agricultural so-clety on Agricultural Fairs. Later President Brundage of the Connecticut Poultry association will talk on poul-try today.

Going to Putnam. Mrs. William Mathewson has closed her house for the winter. She plans to spend the winter in Putnam.

EAST WOODSTOCK

Allan and Ethel Upham of Boston Mr. and Mrs. E. E. May spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Mr. Mr. D. Hildrith in Pomfret Center.
L. H. Lindeman and family are en-tertaining Silas Allen and family of Whitingville.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Upham spent Thenksgiving with H. E. Bannister and family in Webster.

George Bosworth has purchased the.
stock of B. E. Eddy and the post office will soon be moved to Mr. Bosworth's Mrs. John Buck has moved from Grosvenordale to William Chandler's where she will act as housekeeper.
Miss Ethel Howard is spending the Thanksgiving recess at her home in

Chapita. Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Pike spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. John Stackpole and family at the Center. ONECO

Miss A. A. Battey is visiting her sister in Providence. Mrs. T. Brown went to Jewett City

C. C. SHAYNE & CO.

IMPORTURES AND MANUFACTURERS OF

STRICTLY RELIABLE FURS

Exclusive Designs in all Fashionable Furs for Fall and Winter Wear in

Coats, Wraps, Neckwear and Muffs

126 West 42nd Street

New York City

wednesday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Thatcher.
Mrs. William N. Sweet is entertaining her sister form Rhode Island.
Mrs. Annie Foley spent Thanksgiving at New Haven, and will visit over Sunday at Watertown.
Mrs. C. D. Whitford was in Providence Monday.
Claude Tillinghast and a lady friend spent over Thanksgiving with Mr. BROOKLYN.

Wednesday to visit her parents, Mr.

WINDHAM

McDonald-Wilson Marriage-Local Entertainers for Thanksgiving-Li-

Miss Amy Wilson of Windham and Donald McDonald of New Haven were married in that city Wednesday by the pastor of the Dwight Place church. A number of the bridegroom's friends has been at the Inn for several days.

SCOTLAND

Phinney-Holiday Guests.

Thanksgiving recess with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Lovering. Mrs. Mary Phillips of Glastonbury is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William

Miss Martha Babcock of Westerly,

Miss Ruth Howard of Lebanon is

Miss Alice Sweet, who has been helping the Hall family move to Willimantic and settle there, returned to her home for Thanksgiving. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kenyon

Thanksgiving with relatives in Can-

The young people of the town ar

R. I. was with relatives in town over the winter.

brary Schedule.

Red Cross,
The past week Policeman Babcook
Fireman George Hill and the engispent over Thanksgiving with Mr. Tillinghast's parents.

Rents Tyler Residence. Rev. H. H. Washburn has rented the Tyler residence for the winter and with his family late of Leonia, N. J., is now domiciled there, Mrs. William B. Potter is visiting house, as the manager, Mr. Burgess, has kindly donated the use of his kitchen, dining room and dishes for this purpose. The money secured will be expended for the work of the Red Cross, Cross.

Rev. Dr. and Mrs. George F. Genung left Tuesday for the home of their daughter. Mrs. Charles Minot, in Greenfield, Mass., to spend Thanksglv-Mrs. Arthur Blackledge of Norwich

The mercury Tuesday morning stood at 8 degrees above zero. Chicken supper, 35 cents, Putnam House, Dec. 2nd, 5 to 7 p. m. Benefit Red Cross.—Adv.

SOUTH KILLINGLY

Mrs. A. E. Phillips has returned from visit with her sister, Mrs. John rowley, of Valley Falls, Mrs. Raymond Gates of Danielson has been visiting her mother, Mrs. P.

is improving mr. and Mrs. Homer Wood enter-Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Barlow hav been entertained Henry Leonard and tained at dinner on Thanksgiving day. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thompson and fammily of Valley Falls, Miss Gertrude Hall of Putnam spent Vt.

plant from Windham to Hampton.
Master Francis Coffey was a visitor in North Sterling, Wednesday.
Mrs. H. B. Goodsell is visiting her daughter in Bridgeport.
Mrs. Charles Young is improving row (Sunday), evening, Rev. M. R. Plumb will give an illustrated lecture on the Social Aspects of Foreign Missions.

W. S. Chappell of New London was in town Tuesday. slowly.

Leonard Mills entertained his moth-

WESTMINSTER Misses Violet and Ethel Newton en-good time was enjoyed by all. Game were played and refreshments served

Hartford Hunters Get Much Game-Tyler Residence Leased-Work for

neer at police station in Hartford came to town in an automobile and spent the day hunting, in company with Her-man and Harry Lathrop. They re-turned home at night taking with them the game secured, to wit: four partridges, two quail, three rabbits and six squirrels.

friends in Mystic.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel T. Cooper have as guests their son, Aaron G. Cooper, wife and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Newton of New Lon-gave Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald a ban-quet at the Hotel Taft, Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald spent Thanksgiving at Mrs. MacDonald's home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Abbe left Tues-day to spend Thanksgiving with their in Mr. and Mrs. Walter Abbe left Tuesday to spend Thanksgiving with their son and wife Mr. and Mrs. Walter Abbe, Jr., in Pittsburg.
Guests at Dr. Guild's for Thanksgiving were Miss S. Elizabeth Clark of Putnam, Mr. Horner of Brooklyn, N. Y., Miss Daniels, Miss Constance Merriam, H. E. Parry and Paul Merriam.
Among those who spent the holiday out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Char'es I arrabee, Miss Marian Larrabee, Rev. and Mrs. M. R. Plumb at W. F. Gates in Lebanon, Mrs. Ada Larrabee at Judge Lucius Brown's in Norwich, Miss Emma Larrabee at Frank Larrabee's in Willimantic, the Misses Johnson at James Johnson's in Scotland. don.

Mrs. William H. Clewley recently visited her sister in Providence.

In the Baptist vestry Monday evening, under the auspices of the Women's Club of Brooklyn, Capt, Hugh L. Muson gave a talk on the topic, A Trip Around the World, illustrated. The attendance was good. The proceeds will be given over to the Postern Control of the Control of th The attendance was good. The pro-ceeds will be given over to the Red Cross league. The league is also planning to give a supper in the Putnam

C. Bliven.

the week end at The Oaks.
George W. Edgerly was a recent visitor in Sturbridge.
A. E. Hall is moving his sawmill plant from Windham to Hampton. academy, After Nov. 28 the public library will be open on Saturdays only through At the Congregational church tomor-

> Miss Rachel Burns was taken to the Day Kimball hospital Monday for an operation for appendicitis. She is as comfortable as could be expected.

THOMPSON

Miss Daniels of Turkey Addresses Missionary Society. Miss Charlotte Lovering, who teach-s in Plymouth, Mass., is spending the

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Morse went to Springfield Tuesday to spend a few days with their son, Valentine Morse. The Ladies' Missionary society held a thank-offering meeting in the Congregational vestry Monday afternoon. Miss Daniels of Turkey spoke very interestingly of her work in that place, where she has been over twenty years. Miss Nellie Lowe is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mills.
Florence Chase of Brooklyn, N. Y., is yisiting at the Chase homestead.

er, Mrs. J. Mills, Miss Augusta Mills, and his brother, Fred Mills and famtertained a number of their friends on ranged a surprise party for Miss Ag-neta Phinney on Monday night, the 23d. There were 26 present, and a lasted till one o'clock.